

I am opposed to any further consolidation of ownership of the media. The power is already concentrated in the hands of too few companies. Please do not allow a change in the current media ownership rules unless it is to make them stricter.